Things to Do... Places to See

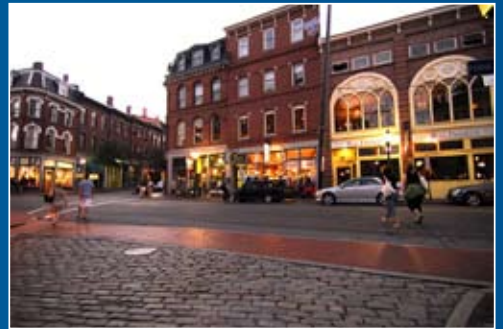

Eastern Trail Network

The Eastern Trail is part of the Eastern Coast Greenway Bicycle Trail that extends from Maine to Florida. One of the most scenic coastal sections of the Eastern Trail connects Pine Point Road (Rt. 9) with Black Point Road (Rt. 207). You'll find a convenient parking lot 1/4 mile east of Maine Audubon's Scarborough Marsh nature center on Pine Point Road. The trail heads north crossing the Scarborough Marsh with its wildlife and views of Maine's largest saltwater marsh. The 12-foot-wide trail in this 2.5 mile segment features a hard packed gravel surface that is level, great for walking, jogging or biking.

Portland's Old Port District

The Old Port District is located on the Portland waterfront. Many commercial buildings have been revitalized and transformed into quaint shops, galleries and restaurants. You can stroll down the cobblestone streets and browse for hours. Here you'll find trolley tours of historic Portland and cruises on Casco Bay.

Fort William's Park and Portland Head Light

Fort Williams Park stood with guns protecting Portland Harbour until it was officially closed in 1963. Located off Route 77 (Shore Road), the fort was taken over by the town of Cape Elizabeth which maintains the property for all to enjoy free of charge. The park is the location of the most picturesque light house on the East coast. This lighthouse was commissioned in 1790 by George Washington himself.

Pack your lunch, grab your camera and enjoy the scenic views.

Old Orchard Beach

Old Orchard Beach, located just 3 miles from the Resort, is situated along a 7 mile stretch of beautiful sandy coastline. Families love the wide variety of activities including the beachfront Palace Playland amusement park and the Pier. Extending nearly 500 feet over the Atlantic Ocean, the Pier features shops, restaurants, games of skill and nightlife.
